

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface	v
List of Contributors	1
Introduction – Critical Reflections in Policing Studies Veronika Nagy and Klára Kerezi	9
1 Policing Diversity in Germany and Its Consequences for Professional Development Nathalie Hirschmann	37
2 Policing Transition in a Violent Democracy: A South African Narrative Christiaan Bezuidenhout	63
3 Contemporary Indian Policing Amit Thakre and K. Jaishankar	85
4 The Transformation of Policing in Turkey: A Critical Assessment Boran A. Mercan and Emrah Denizhan	115
5 The Emergence of Proactive Intelligence-Led Counterterrorism Policing and Surveillance in Post-Suharto Indonesia Amira Paripurna	143
6 Predictive Policing in The Netherlands: A Critical Data Studies Approach Gerwin van Schie and Serena Oosterloo	169
7 Digital Media and Policing: ID Theft and ID Misuse in Cyberspace Vida Vilić	197
8 The Surveillance Myth: (In)securitization of Internal Migration in Post-hukou China Tian Ma	223

TABLE OF CONTENTS

9	Policing in Times of Globalization. Counterterrorism Legislation as a Platform for the Militarization of Policing in Argentina Valeria Vegh Weis	245
10	Critical Perspectives on the (Post) ‘Refugee Crisis’ – Policing of Migration in Slovenia Aleš Bučar Ručman and Maja Modic	273
11	From Exception to the Rule: Prevention and the New French Antiterrorist Law Lene Swetzer	305
12	Digital Media and Public Accountability in the Policing of Brazil’s Favelas James Tangen	329
13	Policing the Eastern Bloc Other in Northwestern European Port Zones Yarin Eski	355
14	The Colourful World of Dutch Policing – Why Striving for a Diverse Police Force is Important Janine Janssen	379